

Please do not weaken the no call list law. We lived without telemarketers before, and we enjoy living without them intruding into our homes now. Especially think about the elderly, who find it hard to get to the phone, only to answer to an unabashed sales pitch. Thank you!